

Honorable Commissioners:

Satellite radio is a blessing to the American consumer. And the traffic and weather reports broadcast thereupon are important safety factors. For too long, it has been almost impossible to obtain timely road condition and weather reports beyond your local area. By allowing satellite broadcasters to continue to provide this information, the FCC has broken down a dangerous barrier.

I respectfully request that the instant petition be denied